“ I knew Teresa's husband Bill quite well and Teresa less, having worked with Bill for years. Bill displayed his unending love and respect for Teresa in every way. My heart hurts for the family in how they miss Teresa. God bless you all. Stan Hines

“ Teresa accepted everyone, she was that kind of person. I met her through the Westchase Artists Society, which she ran for many years, and she was always so encouraging of all the artists, no matter their medium, or how long they'd been working at their craft. She was kind, generous, and a wonderful soul with an amazing heart. I just felt lucky to know her at all.....

“ I will miss our text exchanges that were meaningful to me. She had depth.. She possessed and exhibited great compassion for humanity and she loved deeply. Oh, and her wit!

I rejoice that she's healed completely and forever, but she leaves a temporary void on this earth. Sing loudly, T!
