

Timothy Scott Boudet

January 28, 1963 - April 23, 2016

Timothy Scott Boudet, 53, of Tallahassee, Florida left his earthly pain and suffering behind and went to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Saturday April 23, 2016 while at the Big Bend Hospice House. Scott was born in Vero Beach, Florida to James and Linda Boudet. Scott studied Operatic voice at FSU and performed in several operas at FSU as well as musicals in Tallahassee and Vero Beach. Scott was a probation and parole officer with the DOC in Stuart, FL and worked in the Dept. of Children and Family Services, and the Dept. of Juvenile Justice in Tallahassee. Scott spent the last 13 years disabled after multiple back surgeries and other health issues. Scott loved to play golf, cook, garden and give his vegetables to the neighbors, read, and attend FSU football and baseball games. He was one the original “animals” group at the FSU baseball games in the 1980’s. He was a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity. Scott had a friendship with science fiction author Alan Dean Foster and ran a blog for him. Scott was a member of St. Luke’s Anglican Church in Tallahassee.

Scott is survived by his wife of 29 years Janet Robbins Boudet, daughters Kate Boudet of Chicago and Annie Boudet of Tallahassee; his mother Linda Boudet of Vero Beach, brothers Jim (Teresa) Boudet of Vero Beach, Marc (Susan) Boudet of Boca Raton, sisters Shari (Jerry) Ball of Lexington, KY and Jennifer (Kevin) Deany of Vero Beach, as well as uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at St. Luke’s Anglican Church, May 7, 2016 at

3:30 P.M. Scott requested that his body be donated to the FSU Medical School. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Luke's Anglican Church sound system fund or Big Bend Hospice, for their outstanding care to him and his family. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. 850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com

“ Like many others here, I knew Scott only from the Rome boards and their successors. But he was a genuinely good guy. I'll always remember that he was the one who taught me how to post pictures on the internet.

“ Sending Ts & Ps for Janet and the family. I hadn't talked to him in ages, but he was always one of my favorite Trolls™. We would crack each other up over the phone and in mIRC as we orchestrated many a flame war on the boards. He was a gentle soul and genuinely good guy. I'm grateful to have been a small part of the distraction from his pain with all of the board shenanigans and hijinks. RIP Roger_the_Shrubber #RackTheTrolls™ <3 Miss Conduct

“ That photo documents a wonderful evening with Scott and friends in the French Quarter in New Orleans. He talked so much about his family and friends in Florida, and especially his wife. Scott had a great sense of humor and lived life fully. May he rest in peace in the Kingdom of Heaven, and may his spirit live on in the hearts and memories of his family and friends. --Jsc810

So sad to learn of this. God strengthen and comfort you all. I'm glad he got to raise his family. I didn't know him well, but I saw the evidence of his life and faith in the eyes of his loved ones.
