“ In doing a google search for an oldfriend, I came across this, and am in shock and filled with sorrow. I am sure Troy and I have few if any mutual friends, so I would be a stranger to most , besides perhaps his brother. Troy was the best friend I had ever known. In our situation, we were limited in social activities or places we could to creat memories and good times, like most people. We spent our time challenging eachother, talking about life, experiences and dreams. There was none of the fluff and interference/ distractions that embody most of the usual friendships. I knew Troy well and he knew me. He was my brother. Troy was brave, brilliant in thought & speech, he was a horrible softball player but loved to compete more than anyone. Troy had the most magnetic personality of anyone I have ever met. In a land poulated by mostly alpha personality types and "tough guys" , Troy clearly stood the tallest, he was the alpha of the alphas, he had everyone's respect. Troy was kind. He was a leader. So much of his personality I wish I had more of myself. Sometimes I still say things in a way Troy did, I looked up to him. I love you bro - Brandon Rodammer

“ Troy was a great guy, and it is sad to see him pass. I could literally not say a bad thing about him. He had a great personality, and had seen some rough times through his life. I hold him in high respect and am sure he is in a good place right now.

Rest in Peace brother

“ I met Troy at Godby High School and we played football together for a couple of years. After high school we always had something to laugh about whenever we ran into each other. Everyone in Tallahassee from our era knew who Troy Davis was and he left a mark in our lives. He will be missed. God bless you brother.--Troy Smith Godby High c/o 87
