“ Mom you were the Best Mom a son could ask for. My Heart is Deeply Sadden and broke. I know you are at Peace and in Heaven Praising God. I know you have no more pain but it's still hard to be here without you. Your Passing has devastated myself, Chrissy and Kaitlyn. You and Daddy were good to us. I will never forget or quit loving you. I'm up here with Daddy and it saddens us because he misses you. You have done such great things in your life and touched a great many people with your Faith and Love. I promise I will make here more often for Daddy. I Love You Mom and know you will always be watching over us. Thank you for being such a Loving Caring Mom.

I was so saddened to read about the passing of your mother. I recently loss my sister. I know its not the same as a mother but its still even hard ro acknowledge that she is gone and she passed 2 months ago. Robby, the Bible has been a source of comfort to me and I pray it can comfort you as well because the words written on its pages are true and will come about. Though death is difficult to deal with, the Bible also speaks of the time of a resurrection when the lame will leap like the deer (Isaiah 35: 5, 6) and older ones who have died will live again. Take comfort in that beautiful promise from God.
