I deeply regret not being able to attend this important memorial service for my Aunt Virginia, my mother's youngest sister. I have memories of her from a very young age - 5. I went and visited them on the farm quite frequently since we lived closer than some. I developed a close relationship with my dear cousin Beth which I cherish. I remember many things about my aunt. Her laugh mostly. She used to crack me up. I also curiously remember her playing guitar and singing "Fox went out on a rainy night..." LOL. Rest in peace dear Virginia. You will be remembered and sorely missed. Love, Nancy
