“ Dear Nana, I would hope that I could live as long as you did, and have the energy and spunk that you had, and love all the children like you did. I know Jennifer is an easy person to love, but you seemed to love her husband and children like you loved her. I know that I will always remember your being there to help all the children celebrate and your willingness to help where you could. Rest well dear lady in the land where there is no sorrow.
