

Walter Harrell Eubanks

January 3, 1953 - February 15, 2017

On February 15th, 2017, a glorious, sunny day, the soul of Walter Harrell Eubanks, 64, took flight from his home on Lake Iamonia where he had lived for the past thirty-two years. Our W.E. was in the care of his daughter, Susanna, who nursed and comforted him over his last weeks as he fought to survive cancer of the liver.

Walter, a native Tallahasseean, whose life and home were reflective of his love for his family and nature, was the first son of Laura Frances Harrell and Ira Walter Eubanks, Jr.

His siblings are Laura Jo Hooks (Mike), Boston, Georgia, Frances Gray (Sammy) of Monticello, and Jim and Joe (Pris) Eubanks of Tallahassee.

Dearest to his heart were his four daughters, twins Mary Lina Gentile (Vince) and Sara Clifton Eubanks, and Isabelle Gwynn Eubanks and Susanna Brevard Eubanks and his grandchildren, Clifton Blake Verdin and Monroe Isabelle Gentile.

Uncle Walter's love was returned by his many nieces and nephews and close cousins. He remained friends with his former wife, Lina Gwynn.

There will be a celebration of W.E.'s life on Monday February 20th, at 2:00 PM at the K and K Fish Camp, Lake Iamonia Landing Road, off State Road 12.

Our family wishes to thank everyone for their kind donations and prayers for Walter and his girls during these past difficult weeks. We are comforted by the knowledge that he was so well-loved and that his kind, gentle, humorous Spirit remains among us.

“ My brother, a special sweet soul that can never be replaced. Your memorial yesterday at Lake Iamonia was something we will always remember..... sharing time with the family and all your dear friends.....listening to the kind words spoken by your family and friends....and watching the sun go down over the lake, while your little granddaughter played and danced with her young cousins. Your big sister, Frances Eubanks Gray

“ My deepest sympathy to all of Walter's family. He was a lovely man and a tremendous friend. I moved to the Tallahassee area in 1995 to marry my husband Joe. I will never forget the first time I visited here before our wedding ( from San Francisco were I was living at the time) -- Joe was working with Walter farming, and I spent the day as a city girl watching them work. Walter set me up with a blanket, and pillows he had in his truck from a recent visit with his girls! One of many wonderful memories I will have forever. Much love and prayers to you all. ~ Kristin
