“ When I worked for Indian Springs Baptist Church in 1990/91 Pastor Wynn would bring me over to his house occasionally for lunch after church and make me stay to watch racing with him. I usually woke up about time it was over. Great memories were made there. I pray the family is comforted in knowing that he has already heard “well done good and faithful servant”.

I am very sorry for the loss of Bro. Richard in your lives, but so glad he is with the Father. I so admired him and I'm really glad God decided our paths would cross. May the God provided Holy Comforter bring you peace and help you through this difficult time.
