“ What can one say about a man whose mind, heart and spirit radiated the love of Christ in all that he did. His eyes, his smile, his chuckle, his sense of humor reflected the same. Truly a man without guile! We treasure the time that we spent with Elder and Sister (Bill and Kathy) Clark in Mongolia...shared stories, great meals and of course dominoes. We find joy and peace in knowing that death is merely a temporary separation, not an end. Kathy, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dearest Clark Clan,
Danny and I were so shocked to hear about Brother Clark's passing. He has been such a huge influence for good in both of our lives. He even managed to touch the heart of my sister, which means he had a gift greater than most when it came to sharing the gospel. :) He was and will continue to be an inspiration to our family and we can't wait to see him again when the time comes. We love yall so much and you are each in our thoughts and prayers.
Love,
Danny and Stephanie White

“ We first met Bill and Kathy in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, in 2010 and again in 2011 when we were visiting 7 children we sponsor there. In spite of their incredibly busy missionary life, they immediately took us under their wings & helped us with advice on everything we needed to know about how to navigate the city and its culture, as well as how to stay safe! Their assistance with native tour guides & places to visit provided us with the most exciting, interesting vacation we've ever been on. But the greatest memory is of God's "torchbearer" Bill, the guy with a twinkle in his eye and an ever present smile, who, even in the most casual conversation always managed to bring up the blessed, holy name of Jesus Christ many, many times. We know for a fact that he and Kathy held high that torch without reservation, bringing the Light of God to thousands upon thousands of Mongolians, the Light which will continue on as the path of truth to uncountable future generations, as innumerable as the stars. Thanks be to God for His servant, Bill! May he rest in peace in the loving arms of his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
