

William Hawes "Bill" DeBeaugrine

March 5, 1931 - February 1, 2018

William Hawes (Bill) DeBeaugrine, age 86, entered into rest in Tallahassee. He was born in Warrenton, GA and had lived in Headland, AL for 50 years before moving to Tallahassee 3 years ago. Bill was a civil engineer and retired as a co-owner of Slingluff Construction Company in Dothan, AL. He was an active member of Headland United Methodist Church where he served as an usher and lay leader. He was also a member of the Headland Kiwanis Club. Bill served in the U.S. Army and was a graduate of Georgia Tech and member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Survivors include his wife of 60 years Audrey DeBeaugrine who currently resides in Tallahassee; son Jim DeBeaugrine and his wife Susan Prater-DeBeaugrine of Tallahassee; and grandchildren Evans Prater of Asheville, NC and Cassie DeBeaugrine of Tallahassee. Graveside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Friday, February 9, 2018 at Tallahassee National Cemetery. There will be a visitation from 1:00 – 2:00 Saturday, February 10, 2018 at the Headland United Methodist Church with a celebration of his life to follow in the Sanctuary. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Headland United Methodist Church Building Fund. Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (www.bevisfh.com 850-385-2193)

“ Bill & Audrey were neighbors as well as fellow HUMC members. I enjoyed visiting with Bill in the early evening as he "walked" his beloved dog along the sidewalk in front of the house. We talked about his early years in engineering when he was in the West Palm Beach area working on storm drainage structures. He is such an intelligent man and shared many interesting stories. We have missed he and Audrey! Our heartfelt condolences to his family.
