

William Wallace Hearn, Jr.

July 18, 1957 - August 23, 2025

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of William Wallace Hearn Jr., a beloved husband, father, and grandfather, who departed this life on August 23, 2025.

William was a man who found joy in life's simple treasures. He loved nothing more than casting a line in the water, Atlanta Braves baseball and sharing stories with family and friends. His greatest happiness came from the time he spent with his grandchildren, who were his whole world.

As a devoted husband and father, William built a family grounded in love, laughter, and faith. His gentle spirit, steady presence, and sense of humor will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

William leaves behind a legacy of love that will live on in his wife Tammy Hearn, children William W Hearn III (Danielle), Christy Hearn (Amber Phillips) four grandchildren, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

A service to honor his life will be held at 1:00PM on August 27, 2025, at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Rd. Friends and family are invited to gather, share memories, and celebrate the remarkable life he lived.

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Hearn family with their arrangements.

“ I don’t even know where to begin when it comes to talking about my Uncle Wally. For me, he wasn’t just an uncle—he was a second father, a protector, and one of the biggest parts of my life.

I was blessed to grow up next door to him and my Aunt Tammy. That meant I got to be part of their world every single day. I was like the big sister his kids never asked for, but I showed up anyway—and the best part is, I was never made to feel like a burden. Their house was my second home, and Uncle Wally never once made me feel unwelcome.

Some of my happiest childhood memories come from tagging along with them. I didn’t even have to ask if I could go—I’d just climb into the car and off we went. Ball games, family outings, simple weekends together—it didn’t matter what it was, he always made me feel like I belonged. And oh, how I loved that old van they had. To me, it wasn’t just a van; it was fun, laughter, and love rolled into one.

Even into my teenage years, when I lived with them for a while, that same feeling of being wanted and cared for never changed. That was who Uncle Wally was—steady, strong, and full of love for his family and anyone close to him.

But if you really want to understand who Uncle Wally was, you only have to look at how much he loved my Aunt Tammy. That love was the kind of love people spend their whole lives hoping to find. You could see it in the way he looked at her, the way he talked about her, and the way they raised their family together. She was his world, his heart, and he cherished her through every high and low.

To his kids and especially his grandchildren—I need you to know how proud he was of you and how deeply he loved you. When he talked about you, there was joy in his voice, pride in his words, and love all over his face. You were the light of his life.

I've been trying to make sense of losing him, and the truth is, I can't. I don't know why he left us when he did, but what I do know is that his love but what I do know is that his love was bigger than anything else. And maybe, just maybe, he left us in some way to protect us, even if we don't understand it right now.

Uncle Wally, thank you—for loving your family the way you did, for letting me grow up with you as my guide, and for showing me what strength, love, and family really look like. You were one of the greatest blessings of my life, and I will carry you in my heart forever.

We love you, and we will miss you always.

“ Wally we are so heartbroken ! We wish you had reached out to someone for help. I wish I had spent a lot more time talking with you at Kevin's. I will always keep you in my heart. I will always remember going with you to get an engagement ring for Tammy. The years have flown by. I can't wait to see you in heaven. So grateful you got saved and baptized.
