“ Wynona was a sweetheart and inspiration. I got to know her as a neighbor of my friend who is blind and disabled. Despite her own issues she always kept an eye out for Roger. The apartment complex would post written notices of things like upcoming bug treatments and he would never know the notices were there. So she would text me to help her neighbor. She also did laundry for him some after he became unstable walking. I was saddened to hear she is gone but we know she is with the Lord.

“ I wanted to share a funny memory of Wynona too! When telling people what her name was and how to say it...she would in her hilarious Wy animation and humor say: It's Wy...like "Why not?"; No...like "No way!!!"; Na...like "Nah" and shake her hand to say slang for no. It was indeed a perfect and no-fail way to remember her name every time I tried to say or spell it!

“ God used Wynona in amazing ways in my life. Her love for Jesus was contagious. I was a young teenager when I first met dear Wynona, and I remember being blown away at how her love for Jesus spilled over into each life she touched. God used her example of looking past her disability and putting others' needs above her own as a HUGE influence in my life. In fact, her example had ripple effects many years later as I became an advocate for people with disabilities. I remember calling her when I was first starting out and thinking I have no excuse not to reach out. I John 4:18 depicts her life beautifully as it states "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear." She never let the fear of man or what others may have thought of her hinder her from sharing the Gospel or pouring out God's love; and as I type this I'm weeping to think of where I would be without precious Wynona's example. Thank You, Lord, for allowing our paths to cross so many years ago...around 1997 in Birmingham, AL. Your testimony will never be forgotten, dear sister!

I am so sad at Wynona's passing and miss her so. She was like a sister to me, and we spent many hours in Birmingham laughing and talking about everything under the sun. She was one of the bravest people I've ever known, and I'm a better person for having known her. She loved people, and she loved Jesus. Her family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Penny Pearson , I was so saddened to learn of Wyonna passing. The last time I saw her at Church she said she would be walking in Heaven one day. Indeed she is today! She served on the Family Care Council with our son Kent. It amazed. me of all she was able to do. Praying for her family.

“ This is so heart breaking to learn of Wynona. She and I were on the Family Care Council together. And recently attended church together. The last time I spoke to her, she came over to give me a hug at church. Shawn Pearson
